YOUR PERSONAL AURA COLORS

Please review the following areas on your aura-chakra photo:

The color on the left side is normally the vibration coming into your being. It is what you feel inside, but might not have expressed.

Above Head (Thoughts-Beliefs)

The color over your head is what you experience for yourself now. It reflects what you think or believe at that moment and shows your current state of mind.

Right Side (Male-Yang)

The color on the right side is traditionally the energy being expressed, the qualities most likely seen or felt by others around you. It is what you are putting out to the world.

Center (Base Aura Color)

Your most dominant Aura Color is seen in the center of your body. This Base Aura Color helps determine your Personality Type and does not change as fast as the outside colors.

Dark, muddy or multiple Aura Colors

You might be stressed, tired or experiencing emotional problems. You may be in a period of tremendous growth and change reflected by several aura colors.

Chakras

The shape, size and intensity of the color of each chakra reflects various physical, emotional, mental and spiritual states within your aura.

Round, circular chakras show a balanced energy system.

Non-circular, blurred chakras show an imbalance in your energy centers. Also look at the color and brightness of each chakra for a more detailed analysis.

Your right male active body side has a higher energy level than your left female passive side. Answer these questions for yourself:

Do you find it difficult to express your emotions, thoughts or your creativity?

Are you experiencing physical ailments on your right side?

Do you experience strong inner feelings and emotions?

HEAD DOMINANT

Your head area seems to have a higher vibration than the rest of your body. Answer these questions for yourself:

Do you generally think a lot or do you have a lot on your mind at this particular time?

Do you believe your thinking is separate from your feelings?

How can you create peace of mind within yourself?

STRESSED / LOW ENERGY

Is it a very stressful time for you right now? Are you going through a lot of changes or are you working on too many projects at once? Your Aura shows that you are not very energized. You might be very active but in reality you are using up your internal battery. Your adrenals may be running high. It might be time for you to relax your mind and body on a regular basis. Why not go to the beach or mountains to unwind and recharge your inner batteries. Ask your consultant for products to help you to be more creative, balanced and relaxed.

Your Individual Aura Color Analysis

White in the Aura

White contains all the colors in perfect harmony and balance. It shows a transcendent, spiritual and higher dimensional existence. White indicates an enlightened state connected with divine energy. White is sometimes too heavenly and spiritual and therefore can indicate someone who is not really anchored into the physical body. Clear white shows meditative practice and spiritual discipline that has been followed for many years. White is the color associated with the seventh or Crown Chakra, pineal gland, head, central nervous system and spirituality.

How do you take care of your sensitive physical body?

Do you have fulfilling relationships with friends and family?

Are you connected to nature?

What do you do to stay in a healing, transcendent state of mind?

Is it a challenge for you to focus or concentrate?

Are you grounded and connected to the physical world?

How do you express your healing energies and spirituality?

Lavender Around the Head

Clear bright Lavender means that your capacity for intuitive perception is extremely high. You are very creative and your sensitivity enhances your subtle and artistic imagination. Your ability to channel divine energy could make you a healer, visionary artist or inspirational spiritual teacher. Dark muddy Lavender suggests that you are not always very practical or clear in your expression. You may be inconsistent and incomprehensible. Your physical strength might be limited and you may not be very grounded.

Lavender on the Left

Clear bright Lavender flowing into your aura brings you spiritual healing powers. You are an imaginative visionary, processing a deep understanding of spirituality with powerful intuition. Dark muddy Lavender flowing into your aura can indicate nervousness, tension or even dis-ease. It may be a time of withdrawal to initiate a search into the deep mysteries of life. Reconnecting with your physical body and your emotions might be essential in your path of healing and self empowerment.

White on the Left

White flowing into your aura indicates a high frequency of energy for you to embrace. It can be an indication that you are allowing divine energy into your life through meditation or channeling. Intense white spots may show energy blockages and a need to deal with hidden or denied emotional issues.

Lavender on the Right

Clear bright Lavender shows that you have great spiritual and intuitive insight, and your energy has a healing effect on others. Many can sense the power emanating from you. You may be receiving impressions and visions, often without trying. You are idealistic and futuristic, with psychic abilities. Dark and muddy Lavender can mean that you are physically tired and may have difficulty staying grounded. You might have trouble meeting the demands of daily life, needing to rest often. Ground yourself and recharge to allow your powerful spiritual energies to flow harmoniously.

White on the Right

White indicates an abundance of energy that is available. This energy is of a very high level and can be directed wherever it is needed. You have a deep connection to this Divine energy and a commitment to spiritual practice. This is the aura of meditation and enlightenment. White spots may show energy blocks and pain. You might need to reach out to healers or medical professionals to help you resolve issues.

White in the Heart Area

White in the heart area indicates that you have accumulated incredible energy. It can also mean you may open your heart too widely and therefore may need to protect your self from the demands of others. If white is harmonious with the aura there is great spiritual knowledge in your heart.

MIND/BODY

Spirituality, transcendence and cosmic, universal concepts are familiar to White personalities. They are closer to God than all other color personalities. They are channels of divine energy and spiritual qualities, living in this physical reality. Whites reflect the highest vibration of energy -- white light, the universal life force. White, or crystal light, is actually itself not a color. It is the quintessence of all colors of the rainbow or all colors combined.

Motivation is based on how clear they feel inside and how much healing energy they can channel through their bodies. They perceive life like a mirror, which reflects and shows who they are and how much light-energy they are able to integrate. Being connected with their inner, spiritual, divine force and functioning as a healing channel is natural for a White. They are guided by their higher mind to show humanity what powerful, spiritual beings humans are. They demonstrate that Spirit or God is the essence of life itself.

Whites have a tendency of being quiet but quick thinkers. Their highly developed mind functions are on an intuitive and spiritual level rather than an analytical one. Whites are also fast learners. They can tune into data or knowledge easily absorbing new information.

They love to read books, watch movies and attend the theater or other social events, which may enable them to more clearly understand the meaning of life. On the other hand, Whites enjoy spending time by themselves. They need to regularly withdraw from their environment in order to contemplate life and their spirituality. They are natural healers and find great joy in helping other people with their own healing process. As a result of having clear energy themselves, they are able to channel high vibrational healing through their bodies.

Whites are usually able to keep their thoughts and emotions out of the way. They have access to transcendental states of consciousness, where matter and reason have no place. It feels natural for Whites to connect with inner dimensions of existence. To them, these higher vibrational planes are as substantial and "real" as physical reality. They know that we as human beings live in a world of limitations and that our spirit is really free and will live forever.

Whites are like prisms. The purity of the crystal determines how much light will actually shine through. The clearer the channel or medium is, the more powerful the healing life energy can flow through it. Consciousness and awareness are the most powerful tools for a White.

Whites reflect all energy qualities on a higher level and therefore can easily transform those around them. They have the unique ability of tuning into other situations or the mind, body and spirit of another. Whites, with their clear white energy, are energetic chameleons and therefore easily take on the characteristics, behavioral patterns, emotions and thoughts of other people. They can change their vibrations just like tuning a piano.

Conscious Whites use this ability to understand and heal themselves and others. Unconscious Whites tend to absorb or take in life energy of those around them. Some people might feel an energy drain when they are around this out of power White.

Whites usually don't realize that they take on other personality traits or characters. They suddenly begin to behave like the person they are talking with, to the point of knowing the other person's feelings or even knowing their thoughts. In power Whites can use this ability to tune into others to help them with emotional challenges.

Whites are sometimes physically fragile and delicate. They like to live in a beautiful meditative environment. They function best when they are in an uncluttered, quiet and orderly atmosphere. Whites need a great deal of time and space for themselves to meditate, reflect, nurture and balance themselves. They definitely need to recharge their life energy batteries on a regular basis. As soon as their system is overloaded they will withdraw, going within to recharge and clean.

Whites avoid harsh, loud, disharmonious environments because interaction with physical reality is one of their challenges. All kinds of disturbances or stress, whether physical, emotional or mental, are damaging to their inner balance. Because they are so ultra sensitive and receptive, they need a lot of time to recharge themselves. Spirituality, healing and a sense of peace on all levels are far more important to them than working on projects and achieving success on a physical level.

Whites are ultimately striving for enlightenment, the state of consciousness in which duality, time and space cease to exist. They are seeking a state of super-mind, where they can be one with the universe. Being pure and quiet inside allows them to have a true and deep connection with Source/God. They live their lives through intuition and inner guidance in a state of transcendence or heightened awareness. They also teach humanity the importance of transcendence and the existence of a powerful cosmic energy.

In power Whites are quiet, sensitive and peaceful individuals. If they stay centered they experience inner peace and harmony, radiating this enlightened feeling toward others. They vibrate at a very high level and sometimes can automatically heal other people around them, just by their very presence.

Whites teach humanity that healing can take place if we allow spirit or God to do the work. We cannot force our own evolvment or healing. Real healing and spiritual growth can only occur when God is alive within us.

If out of power, Whites can become disoriented and depressed. If they don't follow their intuition and are not in tune with their inner self, they become confused and scattered. If they are not connected with their life purpose and their healing energy, they may shut themselves off from reality. One of their greatest challenges is to stay grounded, connected to the earth plane, so they can fulfill their mission while in their body.

Whites may lack self-confidence, constantly looking for reassurance and approval from others. Being sensitive and sometimes easily hurt, they often retreat inside to be alone with their emotions. They may feel insecure about making decisions and dependent on others to run their lives. Whites often don't like large crowds. If Whites are out of power they tend to adapt behaviors and responses from others. Then they forget what their real feelings are and what their purpose on this planet is.

White personalities have an inner connection and an urge to live and experience God. When it comes to God, Whites don't think, feel or discuss the concept. They actually experience it. They feel and know that God is in everything, from the smallest atom to the largest star. Whites know that in our true nature we are powerful spiritual beings, that we are God.

SOCIAL LIFE

White personalities are usually cautious in their interactions with other people. However, they do have close friends whom they trust. Choosing their friends on a spiritual and soul-to-soul basis ensures a safe and peaceful environment. They are flexible enough to live in society, but they usually need a considerable amount of time and space for themselves.

Their strong connection with God allows them to stay alone for long periods of time. If they are in contact with their Higher Self, they don't need to be surrounded by people. On the other hand, Whites want to share their light and healing energies, bringing peace and enlightenment to all of society. They are often found as ministers, counselors and teachers in spiritual organizations or churches.

Whites know that we are all interconnected and beings of light. This knowledge helps them channel their light energy into this physical reality, facilitating healing and peace. Whites primarily live and work on higher dimensions of existence.

White personalities usually do not feel the need to be accepted by society. If they are in an unbalanced state they will try to get attention as a substitute for their lost inner connection. In power Whites are very sensitive beings with abundant healing energy available.

RELATIONSHIPS AND INTIMACY

Whites are sensitive beings. They may need their own special space more than a social life or a relationship. They only allow close friends, partners or associates to become emotionally and even physically close. Depending on their clarity, Whites love helping and healing others.

In working situations they prefer small groups or one-to-one relationships. This gives them the opportunity to tune in completely to each person. Large crowds may have a tendency of disturbing them, creating imbalances, not allowing them to stay in contact with their clear transcendent energies.

Whites may be loners because their inner connection with God is enough by itself. No one can compete with God as his or her source of inspiration and peace. Therefore it takes a very special mate for them to commit to a romantic relationship, and to allow that person into their life.

Whites are careful and often choose a conservative approach to their relationships. When they are in power they can have a very healing, peaceful and spiritual effect on their partner. But their mate needs to understand that Whites must clear themselves regularly from disharmonious energies, ground themselves and find their purpose in life, creating a healing and peaceful environment both within and around them.

Sex for Whites is a divine, spiritual experience. It creates a connection with God or the universal life energy. During orgasm, Whites merge with and even become God. But Whites do not need sex or physical love. Their expanded perception of unconditional love comes from their ability to connect with higher dimensions. To them, love is the essence of life itself.

Whites enjoy making love but they need a highly responsive, caring and strong partner who understands their sensitive nature. Because they interact so powerfully with other people, making love can be an emotionally intense experience. Whites can remain single or celibate for long periods of time.

Lavenders and Violets both need a lot of time to recharge themselves and connect with God. Blues often experience similar challenges in finding intimacy and common ground. Indigos and Whites can create a powerful spiritual relationship based on love and understanding. Greens seem to understand and support the needs of a White.

Most of the physical colors may be too diverse for Whites. Reds and Oranges might be too physical to be compatible with Whites. Deep-Reds have a completely different concept of life and spirituality. Yellows may be too extroverted, playful and mental for a lasting relationship with Whites.

In their relationships, Whites need a lot of freedom to be who they are. Their challenge is to attract partners who can give them the space they need while totally supporting their search to find inner peace and enlightenment.

CAREER AND FINANCES

Making money and taking care of physical demands is not a main issue for White personalities. They can exist on the physical plane but live most the time in their spiritual world. Being grounded is a challenge for them. It may be a good idea for them to let others handle their financial matters so they can be free for their healing and spiritual work. Whites handle money with care because it represents security. They take very few risks and often maintain a lifestyle which is easy and simple.

Whites judge their work and their success by how calm and peaceful they feel and by how powerful and effective their healings are. Their greatest reward is being connected to the Universal Source/God.

To solve their challenges Whites need to trust their intuition and allow the healing energy to flow through them. When dealing with challenges, they may be cautious and tend to lean toward old, proven solutions.

They need a peaceful and meditative environment to tap into their power and use their gifts of healing and teaching.

Some White occupations are: healer, therapist, spiritual teacher, minister, nun, monk, secretary, librarian, receptionist, artist and enlightened master.

HEALTH, WELL-BEING AND GROWTH

Whites will be in a healthy and balanced state if they are connected with their life purpose. To stay in power they must continuously go within. Living every moment in a state of heightened awareness is exactly what their soul is looking for. Once they understand their purpose in life learn to maintain a high energy level, they will be happy and content.

White personalities need to communicate with Spirit and God on a continuous basis. They must constantly retreat to their own environment in order to clean their energy field. This will help them to stay centered and to remain an open channel for high vibrational healing energy. Always surrounding themselves with nature is highly therapeutic. It also supports them toward finding greater inner peace and harmony.

It is essential to their health that they connect with their inner healing energy and become a crystal-clear channel of life energy. Transcendental or Light meditation techniques are wonderful ways for Whites to connect with Spirit and their healing power. Once they are in contact with their source they will be guided in their daily life and in their healings.

White personalities understand the concept of "give and you shall receive." Their ability to be a clear channel enables them to send powerful healing energy to others. They know that giving others love and acceptance will create a tremendous growth process within themselves as well as those they heal.

Sending warm heartfelt feelings and thoughts to others uplifts them and helps them find their way. Whites know that healing occurs first in the spiritual realm and then unfolds in our mind and body. Their gift is to bring forth this divine energy while living in a transcendent state of consciousness. They are our guides to self empowerment.

The Aura around humans is partly composed from EM (electromagnetic) radiation, spanning from microwave, infrared (IR) to UV light. The low frequency microwave and infrared part of the spectrum (body heat) seems to be related to the low levels of the functioning of our body (DNA structure, metabolism, circulation etc.) whereas high frequency (UV part) is more related to our conscious activity such as thinking, creativity, intentions, sense of humor and emotions. The high frequency UV part is very important and most interesting but largely unexplored. And this part can not be seen with naked eyes

This new technology is set to improve the nation's health.

Things which seem to reduce, muffle or distort your bio-energy (Aura) are: FEAR, stress, anxiety, hatred, envy, jealousy or any other negative thought or feeling

Physical crisis in your body - disease, artificial stimulation (drugs) etc. These can show a temporary increase in the aura size - this effect is similar to the effect of your body raising the temperature during sickness. You need to learn to READ the Aura to diagnose such a crisis. Most likely such increased Aura will be white.

Clothes and the environment may be clashing with your Aura. Dull colored clothes absorb your bio-energy rather than harmoniously enhancing it. It is interesting to note that males on Earth die much earlier than females, regardless of their cultural and ethnic background, diet etc. In our opinion it is related to the fact that males dress in black or gray colors for the most of their lives and rarely use colors. Females use much more colors in their garments and change them frequently. Interestingly, many male birds in Nature are much brighter colored than females. And THEY live longer. Nature always gives us a hint. All we need to do is observe it and adopt ideas from it. An immediate effect of wearing gray, black or brown clothes seems that that they make you tired quicker. Have you noticed that young people today look MUCH OLDER than they should?

Isn't it logical that we should avoid all of the above if possible?
“Cultivating” any of the above for prolonged time can have a permanent effect on your psyche and your Aura.
